INTRODUCTORY

The presentation of the Fort Wayne City Directory is a notice to the public that the publishers have taken their inventory of the city and the work accomplished is given them. The citizens of Fort Wayne have been interviewed at their places of business as well as at their private residences and the listings here are the results of the canvass. Changes from the 1920 directory comprise more than 70 percent of the total number of entries, a convincing argument showing the absolute necessity of revision. Upon the publication of the new directory the old ones have become obsolete except as a part of the permanent history of the city, its people, and its institutions for they are of little value to those who wish to know the existing conditions in and concerning the city.

The publishers have enjoyed the advantages of a thoroughly tested system and of a complete organization, and the further advantage of the courteous cooperation of the people in furnishing information for publication without which it would have been impossible to have produced this directory.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

"A Power House of Progress," the Chamber of Commerce is the medium through which the citizens of Fort Wayne, and especially the business and professional men, are working for the uplift of the city, both from a commercial and civic standpoint. The activities of the Chamber of Commerce are conducted through bureaus, including the general and civic bureau, industrial, membership, traffic, transportation and waterways, manufacturers, jobbers, retail merchants, advertising, tourists, rural development and good roads, legislation and taxation, real estate, insurance and housing and other departments. This organization exists solely for the development of the city and its various enterprises, its members are imbued with a spirit of progress, they give their earnest thought and attention to the city's welfare and its social and commercial betterment. The influence of the Chamber for good in the lines of conduct laid down for civic progress is paramount in the community, and citizens naturally look to the Chamber of Commerce whenever questions arise relating to the general interests of the city. Thus Fort Wayne is in line with other important cities in maintaining and supporting the organization. The Chamber solicits correspondence with investors, merchants, workingmen and homeseekers, to whom full information will be furnished.

The Federal Census of 1920 credited Fort Wayne with a population of 86,549, but that census only included the residents within the corporation limits. The canvass for this Directory was extended to include a large area of suburban territory, the residents of which are to all intents and purposes, except governmental, allied with Fort Wayne in social and business interest, and constitute with the parent city "Greater Fort Wayne."

The Directory for 1921 contains 46,535 names, which by using the multiple of 2 gives Fort Wayne a population of 93,070, a gain of 1,470 over 1920.

ADVERTISING FORT WAYNE

A copy of this Directory will be placed in each of the Directory Libraries of the leading cities of both the United States and Canada for the free use of those seeking information regarding Fort Wayne and its social and business interests. The advantage of this widespread publicity is obvious, for there is nothing that contributes more to the development of a community than a clear exploitation of its advantages and resources as only the Directory can show.

SOME SUBSTANTIAL STATEMENTS

Fort Wayne, from which the name of the city is derived, was erected in 1794 by General Anthony Wayne at that point where the St. Mary's and the St. Joseph's unite to form the Maumee river, which flows into Lake Erie at Toledo.

It had been an Indian trading post for a hundred years previous, its Indian name being "Kekionga."

It had been held in earlier times by the French, who built a fort for its protection a short distance west, on the St. Mary's river, and later by the English, who constructed a fort on the St. Joseph's, a short distance north of the site chosen for "Fort Wayne."

Within its corporate limits it has nine miles of rivers —five of the St. Mary's, two of the St. Joseph's and two of the Maumee. All of these river banks within the city are owned by the city, and are to be parked and boulevarded.

Fort Wayne has never had a "boom," and it has never stopped growing. Its population in 1840 was 2,050; in 1850, 4,282; in 1860, 10,388; in 1870, 17,718; in 1880, 26,880; in 1890, 35,393; in 1900, 52,057; in 1910, 71,500; in 1920, 91,600; and in 1921, 93,070.

It has four east and west trunk line railways—the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago (Pennsylvania lines), the Wabash, the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate), and the New York Central lines. It has two north and south trunk lines—the Grand Rapids and Indiana and the Lake Erie and Western.

It has six miles of interurban railways, with others building and in contemplation. These railways have a direct connection with the great interurban systems of Ohio and Indiana.

Within a radius of about 200 miles Fort Wayne is about equidistant from her sister cities of Indianapolis, Toledo, Detroit, Cleveland, Chicago and Grand Rapids.

It has no slum district. It is a city of homes, the proportion of home owners to its population being greater than in any city of its class in the United States.

It is known as the "Summit City," as it sits upon the crest of the watershed whence the waters flow east to the St. Lawrence and west to the Mississippi.

It is on the line of the proposed deep waterway known as the Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago Trunk Line Barge Canal, which will unite the waters of Lake Michigan and Lake Erie.

It has the best distributed system of parks of any city in the state, seventeen in number, covering three hundred and twenty acres of land, with one other now being acquired. When these are secured there will be a park within ten minutes' walk of the home of every citizen in Fort Wayne.

It has a Chamber of Commerce with a membership of 1,400, to the members of which the city is indebted for the new Anthony Hotel, costing for grounds, buildings and furnishings over $500,000.00.

It has the finest court house west of the Alleghenies, designed by a Fort Wayne architect and built without a dollar of "graft" going into it.

It has three national banks and two state banks with assets of $27,468,572, six trust companies with assets of $22,843,635.01.

It owns its own waterworks with an ample supply of pure deep rock well water, the value of the plant being estimated at $1,511,405.89; the rates are the lowest in the state. There are one hundred and sixty-eight miles of pipe.

It owns its own electric lighting plant for both city and commercial purposes, valued at $1,000,000.00.

It has one hundred and twenty-seven miles of paved streets, ninety miles being asphalt; eight miles of paved alleys; one hundred and sixty-two miles of cement sidewalks, and one hundred and thirty-six miles of sewers.

It has the finest public market house in Indiana.

It has over fifty churches, three large public hospitals, the Irene Byron Memorial Tuberculosis Hospital in close vicinity, two fine opera houses, three large photoplay houses and eight smaller ones, nineteen large public school buildings (several with fine playgrounds attached), seven public playgrounds and fifteen fine parochial schools, the handsomest Scottish Rite cathedral in the world, a beautiful Masonic Temple, an elegant country club, a $100,000.00 Young Women's Christian Association and a $338,000.00 Young Men's Christian Association.

It is one of the best lighted cities in the country, all of its business section being illuminated with five-light ornamental lamp posts, placed seventy-five feet apart on both sides of the street.

It has four daily newspapers, all of these of very wide circulation, covering all of northeastern Indiana and northwestern Ohio.

It has some of the largest manufacturing plants in the United States, among which are the Pennsylvania shops, the General Electric Co, Fort Wayne Works; the Bass Foundry and Machine Works; Fort Wayne Foundry and Machine Co.; the Wayne Knitting Mills, the largest full-fashioned hosiery mill in the country; the Packard Piano Company; Fort Wayne Engineering & Mfg. Co.; the Western Gas Construction Company; the Bowser Oil Tank and Pump Company; the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump Company; Tokheim Oil Tank and Pump Company; the Van Arnam Mfg. Co.; the General Electric Lamp Factory, the International Harvester Company, and many others.

The bank clearings for the year 1920 totaled $108,622,000.00.

THE SIGN OVER YOUR DOOR

Is a good thing, isn't it? You would not think of doing business without it. BUT it is only seen by those who pass your door. If you could put a sign where everyone could see it, would it interest you?

The City Directory

Is where people look for you when they want to do business. You should make it easy for them to find you, by putting such information as a buyer wants in the Directory, properly indexed under all headings, where he might look for you.
